A Western editor has hit upon a plan to keep subscriptions paid up, says an exchange, that "takes the cake." Every time a delinquent subscriber is mentioned his name is inverted. For example: "uuor souor and wife are spending a few days in Chicago." Every subscriber understands exactly what it means, and there is a grand rush to get right side up again.—Exchange.

The Times is not seriously afflicted with delinquents. We, however, have a few, and no man knows just how soon the Western method may strike Roaques.

Senator Stewart's Reception.

The committee in charge of the meeting was much gratified with the courtesy shown the Senator by the citizens of Roanoke generally, and the respectful hearing accorded him by a representative Roanoke audience. Doctors, lawyers, bankers, merchants and business men indiscriminately were calling on him during the time he was in the city. In the afternoon the Senator and his daughter were given an outing, driving daughter were given an outing, driving through the country to the beautiful mountain scenery surrounding Roanoke. The silver sentiment here is growing rapidly, and it is generally conceded that the Senator's visit here was a success.

MANAGER HOOPER'S BENFFIT At the Academy of Music Mond .y Even

At the Academy of Music Mond. y Even ing, March 2.

Much interest is manifested it the appearance of Emily Bancker and her company, known as the leading exponents of polished light comedy on the American stage, at the Academy of Music March 2. The play, "Our Flat," in which this organization will be seen, is the comedy now running at the Strand Theatre, London, and is an immense success there. Its dialogue is bright, the construction admirable. In brief the story is this:

A young and newly married couple are living in the top flat of an expensive apartment house. Their furniture is all purchased on the instalment plan, and as they hard no money with which to pay their bills they are besieged by dreditors of all descriptions, among whom are the furniture people who strip the flat of everything except the plano, which happens to have been a present; there is absolutely nothing left to sit on, whereupon the young wife gathers together all the eld boxes, empty packing cases and kitchen utensils, out of which she improvises some very beautiful and artistic furniture. The action is rapid, never lags, and in the hands of the clever company who present it is said to create an incessant uproar of laughter from the opening till the final scene.

Much is promised by the management in the way of solid fun, good singing, strong specialties, handsome scenery and effective costumes. This is Manager Hooper's benefit and one well deserved. The attractions the past season deserve the endorsement of the amusement-loving people of the city, who in turn will no doubt respond liberally in showing their appreciation of a well managed theatre and the first class attractions which he has produced during

ACADEMY LAST NIGHT.

A Fine Concert and Operatic Performance Given by the Sherwood Company.

One of the most enjoyable musical performances of the season was furnished by the Sherwood Concert and Operatic Company at the Academy last night to a small, but appreciative, audience.

Wm. Sherwood demonstrated by his

Wm. Sherwood demonstrated by his marvelous performance that he is one of the finest planists that America has ever produced. The selections which were all of the classical order, and artistically graded, were given with wonderful vigor or caressing tenderness as the selection performed demanded; and all were marked by superb technique and bhrasing.

Miss Jennie Osborn, the prima donna Miss Jennie Osborn, the prima donna of the company, has a beautiful mezzo soprano voice of rich timbre in ali its registers and most thoroughly trained. Her selections were all charmingly rendered and heartily encored. As Marguerite in the third act of Faust she was superb, both her acting and singing (particularly her rendition of "The Jewel Song") being of the highest order.

Miss Mabel Crawford's round, rich contralto voice was displayed to fine advantage in "The Flower Song" in Faust. She made a charming Siebel. Wm. Alton Derrick made a fair Mephistophe es. His voice is a musical basso, somewhat breathy in the lower register, but firm and full in the middle and upper regis-

Mr. Frank Hannah is the one weak Mr. Frank Hannah is the one weak member of the company. His voice, a tenor of very limi ed range, was totally inadequate to the role of Faust, which he attempted to sing. His rendition of the beautiful solo "Salve Dimorah" was a dismal failure. He looked the part to perfection but the voice was lacking.

THE BEST FAMILY MEDICINE

She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."-Mrs. May Johnson, 368 Rider Avenue, New York City.
